Wishing for a Proposal in 2008...? Then Take a Leap of Faith

February 2008: Want a ring on your finger and fed up of waiting? Well it's time to change your tactic and take charge this leap year - take off your stilettos and get down on one knee... you propose to your man!

This leap year, boutique tour operator, Carte Blanche Travel, who really understands that those special touches (call them surprises) on holiday make it all the more memorable, suggests that you take your bull by the horns and whisk him off on a romantic long weekend.

A fabulous location, star-studded skies and a wonderfully romantic hotel is what Carte Blanche Travel suggests (and if he doesn't click, you'll have to accept the dazzling ring might need to come later). Below are just three of their suggestions:

Destination: La Residence, Tunisia      Flying Time: 2h50      Room: Double with Sea View
Price: Four nights costs £1,563 for two people travelling in Business Class

Spend your days in sheer pampered bliss at Tunisia's best spa hotel. If culture is of interest then a morning in the Souk in Tunis, a great meandering bazaar of exotic goods, is a must followed by a visit to El Djem, one of the Romans' best preserved Amphitheatres. Perhaps pop the big question from the ancient ruins of Carthage as the sun sets flooding the sky in purple light. To celebrate Carte Blanche then recommends a romantic Bedouin evening in the magnificent Sahara landscape with delicious food, music, dance and candles whilst sleeping under the khima (large Bedouin tent).

Destination: Amanjena, Marrakech, Morocco      Flying Time: 3h25      Room: Pavilion
Prices: Four nights costs £3,320 for two people travelling in Business Class

Hand in hand explore the narrow streets of the ancient medina, browse for gifts in the incredible Souk and ask for his hand in marriage over a romantic traditional dinner in one of the Riyad's located in the heart of this Pink City. From there you may choose a day walking in the Atlas Mountains, feasting on an incredible lunch at an old Kasbah located among the snowy peaks, or just to relax and enjoy a series of beautiful Hammam spa treatments in your award winning hotel.

Destination: Les Cascades de Bantry Bay, Cape Town      Flying Time: 11h30      Room: Deluxe Double
Price: Four nights costs £4,912 for two people travelling in Business Class

With overnight flights in comfort, a 4 night stay is as relaxing as it is enjoyable. Take in the must see sights of Cape Town, admire the breathtaking view from Table Mountain, enjoy a spin to Cape Point and visit the legendary Cape of Good Hope. A days hiking through the idyllic Winelands vineyards, wine tasting in the Cape Dutch villages and endless delicious lunches and dinners offer a variety of occasions to get down on one knee. And when he says yes, what better town to be in to indulge in some gem shopping, followed by an afternoon relaxing in the hotel's spa – of course.
