

ZANZIBAR

FUNDU LAGOON (PEMBA ISLAND)

Fundu Lagoon is a stylish barefoot luxury lodge, with just 16 tented rooms and suites, on the remote and unspoilt island of Pemba, part of the Zanzibar archipelago. Fundu Lagoon has a superb scuba centre and excellent water sports.

Fundu Lagoon lies on a wild and beautiful beach on Pemba Island, off the coast of Zanzibar. There are 16 spacious thatched and tented rooms, including four suites with plunge pools, set on a raised wooden deck with wonderful ocean views. At high tide, the white sand beach is perfect for swimming, while at low tide the reef is exposed and one can explore miles of unspoilt seashore, with its unique marine and bird life. Nearby lies Mesali Island, an idyllic sand atoll surrounded by some of Africa's best diving and snorkelling.

MNEMBA ISLAND LODGE

Mnemba Island is a tiny atoll off the north coast of Zanzibar which offers a rustic exclusivity unparalleled on the East African coast. The 10 secluded thatched bandas provide sheer escapism and the ultimate in barefoot luxury. Mnemba Island Lodge is a private island just off the coast of Zanzibar. The bandas are hand woven from traditional Zanzibari palm fronds, all with their own private verandah which is perfect for escaping the midday heat and enjoying an afternoon siesta. The emphasis is on total relaxation in natural surroundings, with the fully stocked bar on the beach and alfresco dining adding to the laid-back atmosphere.

Food at Mnemba is out of this world, with delicious fresh seafood and local Zanzibari and Italian specialities served daily. Days are spent swimming in the crystal clear waters and strolling on the pristine beach that circles the island. For the active, Mnemba Reef and the surrounding waters offer some of the best scuba diving and fishing to be found in Africa.
